

IN THEIR WORDS
NEWTON- LEE ELEMENTARY

Earthquake

It was 2005, I think, a very normal day,

I woke up with a shake,
I thought it was my brother shaking the bed like he always does.

It was our summer break.
I thought it was all a dream,

Until;
It shook my bed. It shook my bed!

I almost fell off my bed and,
Yes, I did and it hurt my head real bad!

I went down stairs to watch,
The news and all I saw were people,

And tears from people who lost their children.

Most people were under there houses or roofs.

You don't believe me then you should have seen the news.
